A proposal to revise ARTICLE I, s. 22, Fla. Const.; providing that a defendant charged with a capital offense may not be sentenced to death unless such sentence is unanimously recommended by a jury of 12 persons.

It is proposed by the Florida Constitution Revision Commission that:

Section 1. Section 22 of Article I of the Florida Constitution is revised by amending that section to read:

ARTICLE I
DECLARATION OF RIGHTS
SECTION 22. Trial by jury; death sentence.--
(a) The right of trial by jury shall be secure to all and remain inviolate. Except as provided in subsection (b), the qualifications and the number of jurors, not fewer than six, shall be fixed by law.
(b) A defendant charged with a capital offense may not be sentenced to death unless a jury of twelve persons unanimously recommends that the defendant be sentenced to death.
