sections, and section 21 is added to Article V of the Florida Constitution, to read:

ARTICLE V

JUDICIARY

SECTION 14. Judicial salaries.--

(a) All justices, and judges, and persons employed by the state courts established under this article, either as employees or through contract, shall be compensated only by state funds appropriated salaries fixed by general law. All costs and expenses of operating the courts shall be paid by state funds appropriated by general law. The judiciary shall have no power to fix appropriations.

(b) Counties shall be responsible for the costs of construction, maintenance, utilities, and security of the facilities for the trial court judiciary, the clerk of the court, and their respective staffs. No county or municipality shall be obligated to pay any salaries, costs, or expenses of the courts.

SECTION 16. Clerks of the circuit courts.--There shall be in each county a clerk of the circuit court who shall be selected pursuant to the provisions of Article VIII section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of the constitution, the duties of the clerk of the circuit court may be divided by special or general law between two officers, one serving as clerk of court and one serving as ex officio clerk of the board of county commissioners, auditor, recorder, and custodian of all county funds. There may be a clerk of the county court if authorized by general or special law. Except for the costs of construction, maintenance, utilities, and security of facilities, the legislature shall annually appropriate funds to each county for all expenses incurred by the clerks of the circuit court in excess of those paid by fees and costs as authorized and retained by the clerks of the circuit court for judicial functions of the office as required by general law.

SECTION 17. State attorneys.--In each judicial circuit a state attorney shall be elected for a term of four years. Except as otherwise provided in this constitution, he shall be the prosecuting officer of all trial courts in that circuit and shall perform other duties prescribed by general law; provided, however, when authorized by general law, the violations of all municipal ordinances may be prosecuted by municipal prosecutors. A state attorney shall be an elector of the state and reside in the territorial jurisdiction of the circuit. He shall be and have been a member of the bar of Florida for the preceding five years. He shall devote full time to his duties, and he shall not engage in the private practice of law. State attorneys shall appoint such assistant state attorneys as may be authorized by law. The state shall be responsible for the costs of construction, maintenance, utilities, and security of facilities for state attorneys and their respective staff. All salaries, costs, and expenses of operating the offices of state attorneys shall be paid by state funds appropriated by general law. No county or municipality shall be obligated to pay salaries, costs, or expenses of operating the offices of state attorneys.

SECTION 18. Public defenders.--In each judicial circuit a public defender shall be elected for a term of four years. He shall perform duties prescribed by general law. A public defender shall be an elector of the state and reside in the territorial jurisdiction of the circuit. He shall be and have been a member of the Bar of Florida for the preceding five years. Public defenders shall appoint such assistant public defenders as may be authorized by law. The state shall be responsible for the costs of construction, maintenance, utilities, and security of facilities for public defenders and their respective staff. All salaries, costs, and expenses of operating the offices of public defenders, including the salaries, costs, and expenses of any court-appointed counsel, shall be paid by state funds appropriated by general law. No county or municipality shall be obligated to pay salaries, costs, or expenses of operating the offices of public defenders.

SECTION 21. Schedule to Article V Amendments.--

(a) Commencing with fiscal year 2000-2001, the legislature shall appropriate funds to pay for the expenses set forth in the amendments to Sections 14, 16, 17, and 18 of Article V pursuant to a phase-in schedule established by general law.

(b) Unless otherwise provided herein, the amendments to Sections 14, 16, 17, and 18 shall take effect July 1, 2004.
