A proposal to create ARTICLE XI, s. 3, Fla. Const.; providing that the power of self-government with respect to local matters may not be diminished except by general law, county charter provision, or special act approved by the electors of the affected county or municipality.

It is proposed by the Florida Constitution Revision Commission that:

Section 1. Section 3 of Article XI of the Florida Constitution is revised by amending that section to read:

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS
SECTION 3. Initiative.--The power to propose the revision or amendment of any portion or portions of this constitution by initiative is reserved to the people, provided that, county and municipal power of local self-government with respect to matters of local concern may not be diminished except by a general law enacted by the legislature, a provision of the county charter, or a special act approved by the electors of the respective county or municipality. All revisions or amendments any such revision or amendment, except for those limiting the power of government to raise revenue, shall embrace but one subject and matter directly connected therewith. It may be invoked by filing with the secretary of state a petition containing a copy of the proposed revision or amendment, signed by a number of electors in each of one half of the congressional districts of the state, and of the state as a whole, equal to eight percent of the votes cast in each CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions. of such districts respectively and in the state as a whole in the last preceding election in which presidential electors were chosen.