A proposal to revise ARTICLE VI, s. 5, Fla. Const.; providing that general elections shall be held on the first Saturday and Sunday after the first Monday in November of each even-numbered year.

It is proposed by the Florida Constitution Revision Commission that:

Section 1. Section 5 of Article VI of the Florida Constitution is revised by amending that section to read:

ARTICLE VI
SUFFRAGE AND ELECTIONS
SECTION 5. General and special elections.--A general election shall be held in each county on the first Saturday and Sunday, after the first Monday in November of each even-numbered year to choose a successor to each elective state and county officer whose term will expire before the next general election and, except as provided herein, to fill each vacancy in elective office for the unexpired portion of the term. A general election may be suspended or delayed due to a state of emergency or impending emergency pursuant to general law. Special elections and referenda shall be held as provided by law.
