A proposal to revise ARTICLE XI, s. 3, Fla. Const.; authorizing the Legislature to modify an adopted initiative petition after a period of time.

It is proposed by the Florida Constitution Revision Commission that:

Section 1. Section 3 of Article XI of the Florida Constitution is revised by amending that section to read:

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS
SECTION 3. Initiative.--The power to propose the revision or amendment of any portion or portions of this constitution by initiative is reserved to the people, provided that, any such revision or amendment, except for those limiting the power of government to raise revenue, shall embrace but one subject and matter directly connected therewith. It may be invoked by filing with the secretary of state a petition containing a copy of the proposed revision or amendment, signed by a number of electors in each of one half of the congressional districts of the state, and of the state as a whole, equal to eight percent of the votes cast in each of such districts respectively and in the state as a whole in the last preceding election in which presidential electors were chosen. Subsequent to seven years from the adoption of any initiative revision or amendment, the legislature may amend, review, or repeal any portion or portions of an initiative revision or amendment adopted pursuant to this section.
