A proposal to revise

ARTICLE XI, s. 5, Fla. Const.; requiring approval of an amendment or revision of the constitution by a three-fifths vote of the electors voting on the proposal.

It is proposed by the Florida Constitution Revision Commission that:

Section 1. Section 5 of Article XI of the Florida Constitution is revised by amending that section to read:

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS
SECTION 5. Amendment or revision election.-- (a) A proposed amendment to or revision of this constitution, or any part of it, shall be submitted to the electors at the next general election held more than ninety days after the joint resolution, initiative petition or report of revision commission, constitutional convention or taxation and budget reform commission proposing it is filed with the secretary of state, unless, pursuant to law enacted by the affirmative vote of three-fourths of the membership of each house of the legislature and limited to a single amendment or revision, it is submitted at an earlier special election held more than ninety days after such filing.

(b) Once in the tenth week, and once in the sixth week immediately preceding the week in which the election is held, the proposed amendment or revision, with notice of the date of election at which it will be submitted to the electors, shall be published in one newspaper of general circulation in each county in which a newspaper is published.

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.
(c) If the proposed amendment or revision is approved by vote of at least three-fifths of the electors voting on the proposed amendment or revision, it shall be effective as an amendment to or revision of the constitution of the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January following the election, or on such other date as may be specified in the amendment or revision.
