A proposal to revise ARTICLE I, s. 5, Fla. Const.; prescribing types of communication that are within the purview of the people's right to instruct their representatives.

It is proposed by the Florida Constitution Revision Commission that:

Section 1. Section 5 of Article I of the Florida Constitution is revised by amending that section to read:

ARTICLE I
DECLARATION OF RIGHTS
SECTION 5. Right to assemble and to instruct representatives.—The people shall have the right peaceably to assemble, to instruct their representatives, and to petition for redress of grievances. The right to instruct representatives shall include, but is not limited to, the right of the people to contact and instruct their local government public officials without being constrained with regard to ex parte communication considerations; however, this provision does not eliminate any provision of law relating to ethics in government which is in effect on the day this revision is approved by the electors or which becomes effective after that date.
